

Fulbright May Get Cornell Bid

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 14 (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), sponsor of legislation that set up federally financed scholarships for study abroad, reportedly is under consideration as president of Cornell University to succeed Deane W. Malott.

Fulbright, in the midst of a reelection campaign in Arkansas, said last night that he had not been approached by Cornell officials, but considered the possible nomination "very flattering."
